SUBJECT: MASCARO AWARDED $7.5 MILLION OF NEW MUNICIPAL CONTRACTS

Local waste service company J. P. Mascaro & Sons, a solid waste industry leader in this regional area, continues to grow its business in the municipal sector. Recently, Mascaro was awarded more than $7.5 million in competitively bid long-term municipal waste collection and recycling contracts.

Mascaro company Director of Sales, Sam Augustine, said, "Our company really appreciates the new long-term waste collection and recycling contracts recently awarded to us by the municipalities of Muhlenberg, Hamburg, Catasauqua and Newton, and we look forward to serving these communities and their residents."

J. P. Mascaro & Sons is a privately-owned, family operated waste service company headquartered in Montgomery County, Pennsylvania; it has over 50 years experience in performing municipal contracts; it owns and operates collection divisions, landfills, recycling facilities, transfer stations, and composting facilities in Pennsylvania and the Mid-Atlantic region; and it is recognized as a premier provider of waste collection and recycling services for municipalities in the southeastern and northeastern Pennsylvania regional areas.

Founded by Joseph P. Mascaro, Sr. in 1964, the company, through the efforts of his five sons, Pat, Joe, Mike, Frank and Lou Mascaro, has grown into the industry leader it is today, and a third generation of Mascaro family members will continue that growth into the future.

Company President, Pat Mascaro, said, "My brothers and I are proud of what our father started, what we have helped to grow over the last five decades, and what the next generation of Mascaros will carry forward. Municipal contracts are a core component of our business operations and, as always, our company strives to adhere to our father's corporate motto – "If It's Service, It's Us!"
