SUBJECT: MASCARO WINS $16.8 MILLION TRASH AND RECYCLING CONTRACT TO SERVE CITY OF CARBONDALE, LACKAWANNA COUNTY

Local waste company J. P. Mascaro & Sons has been awarded a five-year service contract, with five annual option years totaling a ten-year contract award. This contract is valued at $16.8 million dollars to serve the City of Carbondale, Lackawanna County, Pennsylvania. Mascaro will be responsible for providing once a week trash collection and every other week for recycling collection services for all residents of the city.

Mascaro Company Sales and Marketing Director, Sam Augustine, said, "We are extremely pleased that our company has been chosen to serve the City's residents for the next ten years. We value our business relationship with the City." Mascaro's local Nanticoke Division will perform the once-a-week collection service.

J. P. Mascaro & Sons is a local company, founded and headquartered in Montgomery County, Pennsylvania, and is the largest privately-owned waste company in the Northeast.

The company was founded by Joseph P. Mascaro, Sr. and is operated by his four sons. Today, the company has the benefit of an emerging third generation of family members to guide the company into the future. The Mascaro Company possesses a strategic infrastructure of recycling, transfer and disposal facilities in the local region that has enabled it to be the major provider of municipal services in the region.
