SUBJECT: MASCARO WINS CONTRACT VALUED AT $2,000,000 TO SERVE EXETER BOROUGH IN LUZERNE COUNTY

Local solid waste and recycling company J.P. Mascaro & Sons has recently been awarded a new three-and-a-half-year contract to service the Borough of Exeter, located in Luzerne County, Pennsylvania. The contract is set to begin on July 1, 2025, and covers the collection and transportation of waste and recyclables. The total value of the contract is valued at approximately $2,000,000.

This contract will be managed by Mascaro's Wyoming Valley Division, which employs approximately 120 personnel. The division operates out of its facility in Nanticoke, Pennsylvania, which serves as the base for 50 collection vehicles. These vehicles operate across seven counties in Northeast Pennsylvania: Carbon, Luzerne, Lackawanna, Monroe, Columbia, Wayne, and Pike. Within these counties, 39 local municipalities and 10 school districts benefit from the efficient daily collection services provided by Mascaro's Wyoming Valley Division.

J.P. Mascaro & Sons boasts a strategic network of recycling, transfer, composting, and disposal facilities in the region, which has established it as a major provider of municipal services.
