SUBJECT: MASCARO WINS CONTRACT VALUED AT $4.2 MILLION TO SERVE ARCHBALD BOROUGH, LACKAWANNA COUNTY

Local solid waste company J. P. Mascaro & Sons has been awarded a 3-year contract with two one-year options to serve the residents of Archbald Borough in Lackawanna County. The contract will start on January 1, 2025, and will include once a week collection of waste for all residents at a cost of $4.2 million. "We are pleased to be able to serve the residents of Archbald Borough," stated Sam Augustine, Sales and Marketing Director.

J. P. Mascaro & Sons is a local company, founded and headquartered in Montgomery County, Pennsylvania. It is the largest privately-owned waste company in the Northeast. Joseph P. Mascaro, Sr., founded the company and is operated by his four sons. Today, the company has the benefit of an emerging third generation of family members to guide the company into the future. The Mascaro Company possesses a strategic infrastructure of recycling, transfer, and disposal facilities in the region, enabling it to be the area's major provider of municipal services.
