SUBJECT: MASCARO WINS CONTRACT VALUED AT $5.5 MILLION TO SERVE OLD FORGE BOROUGH, LACKAWANNA COUNTY

Old Forge Borough, Lackawanna County — J. P. Mascaro & Sons has been selected to provide residential waste, recycling, and bulk collection services under a new five-year contract, with two additional one-year extension options.

The contract, valued at $5.5 million, started July 1, 2026, and includes once-weekly collection of waste, recyclables, and bulk items for all residents.

"We are pleased to serve the residents of Old Forge Borough, and our ability to do so is a result of our excellent management team and workforce at our Wyoming Valley Division," said Sam Augustine, Sales and Marketing Director for J. P. Mascaro & Sons.

Founded and headquartered in Montgomery County, Pennsylvania, J. P. Mascaro & Sons is the largest privately-owned waste management company in the Northeast. Established by Joseph P. Mascaro, Sr., the company is currently operated by his four sons, with an emerging third generation of family members preparing to guide the business into the future.

With a robust regional infrastructure of recycling, transfer, and disposal facilities, Mascaro continues to serve as a leading provider of municipal solid waste services across the area.
