SUBJECT: J. P. MASCARO & SONS AWARDED $140,000,000 OF CONTRACTS IN 4TH QUARTER

Local waste removal company, J. P. Mascaro & Sons, has been awarded $140,000,000 of new municipal contracts in the fourth quarter of this year. The contracts that will be served are situated in the five-county Delaware Valley region. The contracts represent over 25 individual communities.

Basic service levels include the removal of municipal waste, sewage sludge and a broad range of recycling services and composting.

Three of the larger communities that selected Mascaro were Warminster Township in Bucks County, as well as Lower and Upper Southampton in Bucks County.

J. P. Mascaro & Sons is the leading provider of municipal services in the local region. Mascaro possesses a first-class infrastructure consisting of company-owned landfills, recycling facilities, and composting facilities. Mascaro is a third-generation, privately owned and operated company known for the big blue elephant and its motto, “If Its Service, It’s Us”.

Founded and headquartered in Montgomery County, Pennsylvania, J.P. Mascaro & Sons is one of the nation’s largest privately owned waste service companies and an industry leader in sustainability and innovation.
