Subject: J. P. MASCARO & SONS WINS SLUDGE HAULING CONTRACT VALUED AT $2.5 MILLION DOLLARS

Local solid waste removal company, J. P. Mascaro & Sons, was awarded a sludge management contract worth $2.5 million dollars. The contract awarded by the Bucks County Sewer and Water Authority (BCSWA) for a base term of 5-years with option years thereafter. The contract will be serviced by J.P. Mascaro's Souderton Division. Mascaro will be responsible for the transportation and disposal of all the sludge generated by the BCSWA Wastewater Treatment Plant.

J. P. Mascaro & Sons is a local company founded and headquartered in Montgomery County, Pennsylvania and is the largest privately owned solid waste company in Northeast Pennsylvania. The company was founded by Joseph P. Mascaro, Sr. and is operated by his five sons. The company today has the benefit of an emerging third generation of family members to guide the company into the future.

Company president, Pasquale Mascaro noted that, “Our company possesses a strategic infrastructure of recycling, transfer, composting and disposal facilities in the region that has enabled us to be a major provider of services like those that we will be providing to the BCSWA”.
