SUBJECT: MASCARO WINS CONTRACT VALUED AT $3.5 MILLION TO SERVE NEWTON TOWNSHIP IN LACKAWANNA COUNTY

Regional solid waste collection and recycling leader J.P. Mascaro & Sons has been awarded a new five-year municipal contract to serve Newton Township in Lackawanna County, Pennsylvania. Valued at approximately $3.5 million, the agreement covers the collection and transportation of residential waste and recyclables and is scheduled to begin on January 1, 2027.

Service for Newton Township will be managed out of J.P. Mascaro & Sons' Wyoming Valley Division in Nanticoke, Pennsylvania. Supported by a team of about 120 employees and a fleet of 50 collection vehicles, the division provides daily waste collection and recycling services to 39 municipalities and 10 school districts across seven Northeast Pennsylvania counties: Carbon, Columbia, Lackawanna, Luzerne, Monroe, Pike, and Wayne.

Backed by a comprehensive regional network of recycling, transfer, composting, and disposal facilities, J.P. Mascaro & Sons remains one of the premier providers of municipal waste services in the area. For more information about J.P. Mascaro & Sons, its services, and its facilities, please visit www.jpmascaro.com.
